

I come running

I come running, Jesus, every day
I fix my eyes on you alone
I know for sure that you`re mighty God
Draw me closer, closer to you

All that I have I freely give to you
I surrender all that I am
You are my shelter day and night
I cling to your hand, never let go

Brighter than the brightest light in the darkest night
Greater than the oceans of the earth Stronger than the power of death is your great might and your love for all people of this world

You alone - you are my God
You`re my friend when I`m in need
You`re still with me when my road comes to an end
