

More than

Here I am, Lord, waiting for you
I lift up my eyes,
Your light shines through
Here I am Lord, I'm seeking you
I lift up my eyes,
Your light shines through

More than the watchman waiting for morning
More than the darkness waiting for light
More than the desert waiting for spring rain
More than ev'rything I'm waiting for you

When your light shines within me
It brightens up my soul
